
Julien Spiewak

París, 1984

Julien Spiewak is an artist, photographer and researcher who explores the relationships between photography and the human body as an artistic expression.

He studied at the National School of Fine Arts in Paris, graduating in 2009 in painting and sculpture, and photography at the University of Paris VIII.

Spiewak's work is characterized by the use of different techniques and media, such as painting, drawing, photography and video, with which he creates works that deal with themes such as memory, identity and the transformation of the urban landscape, exploring the relationship between human being and his natural and urban environment.

Recently, Spiewak's works have explored the relationship between nature and culture, and how humans interact with the natural environment.

Spiewak's work has been exhibited in galleries and museums around the world, and he has received numerous awards and recognitions for his originality and creativity.
